18 PARTIES

19 1. Janelle Wedge (Complainant) brings this Accusation solely in her official capacity as 20 the Executive Officer of the Acupuncture Board, Department of Consumer Affairs.

21 2. On or about September 5, 2008, the Acupuncture Board issued Acupuncture License
22 Number AC 12543 to Jane Dong Ren (Respondent). The Acupuncture License was in full force

25 JURISDICTION

26 3. This Accusation is brought before the Acupuncture Board (Board), Department of 27 Consumer Affairs, under the authority of the following laws. All section references are to the 28 Business and Professions Code unless otherwise indicated.

1           4.    Section 4955 of the Code states:

2           "The board may deny, suspend, or revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon, the
3 license of any acupuncturist if he or she is guilty of unprofessional conduct.

4           "Unprofessional conduct shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

5                 "(h) Disciplinary action taken by any public agency for any act substantially
6 related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of an acupuncturist or any 7 professional health care licensee."

8           5.    Section 4959 of the Code states:

9                 "(a) The board may request the administrative law judge, under his or her 10 proposed decision in resolution of a disciplinary proceeding before the board, to 11 direct any licensee found guilty of unprofessional conduct to pay to the board a sum
12 not to exceed actual and reasonable costs of the investigation and prosecution of the 13 case.

14                 "(b) The costs to be assessed shall be fixed by the administrative law judge and 15 shall not in any event be increased by the board. When the board does not adopt a

19                 "(c) When the payment directed in the board's order for payment of costs is not

22 enforcement shall be in addition to any other rights the board may have as to any 23 licensee directed to pay costs.

24                 "(d) In any judicial action for the recovery of costs, proof of the board's 25 decision shall be conclusive proof of the validity of the order of payment and the 26 terms for payment.

27                 "(e) All costs recovered under this section shall be considered a reimbursement
28 for costs incurred and shall be deposited in the Acupuncture Fund."

1 FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

2 (Disciplinary action by another licensing board)

3 6. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under code section 4955(h) [disciplinary
4 action by another healthcare agency] in that respondent's license to work as a registered nurse
5 (hereinafter "RN") was disciplined by the California Board of Registered Nursing (hereinafter
6 "RN Board.")

7 7. Respondent entered into a stipulation which placed her RN license on probation for 8 three years subject to terms and conditions. Respondent admitted the truth of each and every
9 charge and allegation in Accusation no. 2008-266 filed March 18, 2008. A true and correct copy
10 of the Decision and Order in RN Case no. 2008-266 is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The 11 circumstances are as follows:

12 8. On or about October 24, 1995, the RN Board issued RN License number 517162 to 13 Respondent. On or about March 18, 2008, the RN Board filed Accusation no. 2008-266 against 14 Respondent's license.

15 9. On or about December 30, 2008, the RN Board issued a Decision and Order in case
16 no. 2008-266 with an effective date of January 29, 2009. Respondent's license was revoked, 17 revocation stayed, and her license was placed on three years probation subject to terms and 18 conditions.

19 10. Accusation no. 2008-266 alleged that on July 7, 2004, while respondent was working
20 as a registered nurse in the General Acute Care Unit (GACU) at Sonoma Developmental Center
21 (SDC) in Eldridge, California, Respondent administered the wrong medication to a 23-year old 22 patient by improper means, failed to properly document her medication errors, and failed to
23 recognize and appropriately respond to the signs and symptoms of the patient's illness.

24 A. The patient, Patient A<sup>1</sup>, was a life long resident at SDC with a diagnosis including
25 cerebral palsy, seizure disorder, and episodic pneumonia secondary to severe dysphagia
26 (swallowing syndrome). During the 18 months prior to his death, he had developed an

27 _____
28 <sup>1</sup> Initial "A" is used to protect patient privacy.

1 increasing number of pneumonias. On or about July 5, 2004, he developed a fever with 2 respiratory distress and dangerously abnormal vital signs; he was thereafter transferred to the 3 GACU to receive a higher level of nursing and medical care. Respondent did not recognize the 4 gross abnormality of the patient's vital signs, and did not properly assess, track and document his 5 status.

6 B. At approximately 8:00 p.m. on July 7, 2004, Patient A. was scheduled to receive his 7 standing 60 milligram (mg) dose of Phenobarbital<sup>2</sup>. Instead, Respondent administered 60 mg of 8 morphine sulfate.<sup>3</sup> Patient A. had a brief seizure approximately two hours after missing his 9 Phenobarbital.

10 C. The morphine sulfate was an extended release preparation. Extended release tablets
11 should be administered whole and intact and not broken or crushed.<sup>4</sup> Respondent crushed the 12 morphine sulfate extended release tablets and administered them through Patient A.'s
13 gastrostomy tube.

14 11. Respondent's medication errors were not recognized until a routine medication count
15 was performed during the evening shift change, approximately three hours later. Upon learning
16 of her errors, Respondent did not correct the medical record, as required by facility procedures, to 17 reflect that Patient A. received morphine sulfate extended-release tablets, crushed through his 18 gastrostomy tube, rather than his regular phenobarbital dose.

19 12. Accusation no. 2008-266 charged respondent with gross negligence in that she 20 administered the wrong medication to Patient A.; incompetence in that she crushed and 21 administered medication that should only have been administered intact and unbroken;
22 incompetence in that she failed to recognize that the patient's vital signs were grossly abnormal
23

24 <sup>2</sup> Phenobarbital is an anticonvulsant, commonly used in the management of seizure
25 disorders.

26 <sup>3</sup> Morphine sulfate is a powerful analgesic used for preoperative sedation, as a supplement
27 to anesthesia, or to relieve severe pain. Respiratory depression is the chief hazard of all morphine
28 preparations. Respiratory depression occurs most frequently in elderly and debilitated patients, and those already suffering from respiratory ailments.

<sup>4</sup> Intake of broken or crushed morphine sulfate extended release tablets may result in too rapid a release of the drug and absorption of a potentially toxic dose of morphine sulfate.

1 and failed to respond accordingly; unprofessional conduct in that she failed to follow the facility's
2 medication administration documentation procedures; and general unprofessional conduct.

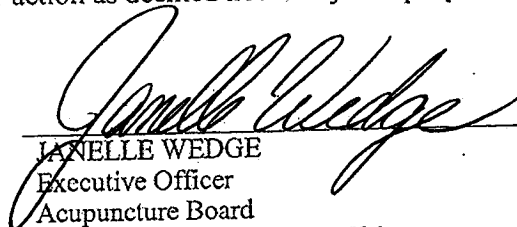

3 13. Therefore, Respondent's acupuncture license is subject to discipline pursuant to code
4 section 4955(h) in that the California Registered Nursing Board's discipline of her license to 5 practice as a registered nurse constitutes grounds for discipline of her acupuncture license.

6 PRAYER

7 WHEREFORE, Complainant requests that a hearing be held on the matters herein alleged,
8 and that following the hearing, the Acupuncture Board issue a decision:

- 9 1. Revoking or suspending Acupuncture License Number AC 12543, issued to Jane
10 Dong Ren;
11 2. Ordering Jane Dong Ren to pay to the Acupuncture Board the reasonable costs of the 12 investigation and enforcement of this case, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section
13 4959;
14 3. Taking such other and further action as deemed necessary and proper.
