- PARTNERS OF THE FIRM

BPC section 5072(b)(1) requires at least one general partner to hold a valid California license to practice as a certified public accountant (CPA), public accountant (PA) or accountancy corporation, or to be an applicant for a certificate as a CPA under BPC sections 5087 and 5088. BPC section 5072(b)(3) requires each partner not personally engaged in the practice of public accountancy within California to be a CPA or PA in good standing of some state, except as permitted by BPC section 5079.

- OUT-OF-STATE PARTNERS

BPC section 5072(b)(2) requires each partner personally engaged in the practice of public accountancy in this state as defined by BPC section 5051 to hold a valid permit to practice or to have applied for a certificate as a CPA in good standing of some state, except as permitted by BPC section 5079.

An out-of-state CPA or PA wanting to practice in California must file an application for licensure and meet the requirements set forth in BPC sections 5087 and 5088, as well as CCR, Title 16, section 21 of Title 16.

BPC section 5073(e) requires that any registration of a partnership granted in reliance upon BPC sections 5087 and 5088 must be terminated if the CBA rejects the application under Sections 5087 and 5088 of the general partner who signed the application for registration as a partnership, or any partner personally engaged in the practice of public accountancy in California, or any resident manager of a partnership in charge of an office in California.

RESIDENT MANAGER(S)

BPC section 5072(b)(4) requires each resident manager in charge of an office of the firm in California to be a licensee in good standing in California, or to have applied for a certificate as a CPA under BPC sections 5087 and 5088.

At initial licensure and at license renewal, CCR, Title 16, section 51 requires firms with non-licensee owners to certify that any non-licensee owner with his or her principal place of business in this state has been informed of the rules of professional conduct applicable to accountancy firms.

This declaration must be signed by a licensed partner of the firm (see page 3 of the application).

The number of licensed partners must be greater than the number of non-licensed partners. The only exception is that a firm with only two partners may have one partner who is a non-licensee.

FEDERAL EMPLOYER ID NUMBER

Disclosure of the firm's federal employer identification number (FEIN) is mandatory. BPC section 30 and Public Law 94-455 (42 USCA 405(c)(2)(C)) authorize collection of the FEIN. The FEIN will be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes, for purposes of compliance with any judgment or order for family support in accordance with section 17520 of the Family Code, or for verification of licensure by a licensing entity where licensure is reciprocal with the requesting state. Applications without a FEIN will be returned (see page 2 of the application).

GENERAL PARTNERSHIP STATEMENT

The declaration statement must be signed and dated by a partner who is a licensee with a valid license to practice public accounting. Firms with non-licensee owners must complete the non-licensee owner(s) declaration (see page 2 of the application).

Pursuant to BPC sections 5070.5, 5070.6, 5070.7, and 5070.8, a partnership license must be renewed every two years to remain in good standing. The expiration date is based on the month and year the application was originally approved.

If approved in an even-numbered year, the license will expire each even-numbered year on the last day of the month in which it was originally approved. If approved in an odd-numbered year, the license will expire each odd-numbered year on the last day of the month in which it was originally approved.

The CBA mails renewal forms with instructions approximately two months before the firm's license expiration date. If your renewal form is not completed, mailed, and postmarked by the license expiration date, your firm's practice rights cease until all deficiencies are corrected, and the license is renewed.

An expired partnership license may be renewed up to five years after its expiration date. A license that is not renewed within five years is cancelled and cannot be renewed, restored, or reinstated.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS, PARTNERS, AND/OR FIRM NAME

CCR, Title 16, section 3 requires a licensed firm to notify the CBA of any change in its address of record within 30 days after the change. BPC section 5073(d) also requires notification be given to the CBA within one month after the admission to, or withdrawal of, a partner from any registered partnership.

If you are changing the firm's address, telephone number, or adding or disassociating a partner without changing the firm's name, you should notify the CBA on firm letterhead.

If the firm's name is changing as a result of adding or disassociating a partner, you must complete the General Partnership/Limited Liability Partnership Name Change Application. The firm's name change must be approved by the Board before holding out and practicing under an amended name.
