STATEMENT: California State Athletic Commission Mourns the Loss of Legendary Boxer and California Native Bobby Chacon

SACRAMENTO – California State Athletic Commission (CSAC) released the following statement on the death of Bobby Chacon:

“The California State Athletic Commission along with the boxing community of California mourns the passing of former two-time world boxing champion, Bobby Chacon.

Bobby was one of the best face-first fighters of his era. Our deepest condolences and prayers go out to his family and many friends and fans worldwide.”

ABOUT CSAC: The California State Athletic Commission (CSAC) regulates professional and amateur boxing, kickboxing and mixed martial arts throughout California by licensing all participants and supervising the events. CSAC constantly seeks methods to make combat sports safer by focusing on techniques to lessen traumatic brain injuries, educating athletes about the adverse effects of the practice of dehydration and weight cutting, regular training of inspectors and officials, and careful and thoughtful approval of professional and amateur matches.
