POSITION DESCRIPTION
This is the working supervisor level. Supervisory positions at this level typically supervise a small group of analysts or Test Validation and Development Specialists performing journeyperson level work and personally perform the most difficult or sensitive work. Nonsupervisory positions in this class are typically responsible for multiphase projects of a difficult and sensitive nature that may affect substantial numbers of personnel involving more than one department or agency.
MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Either I

One year of experience performing the duties of a Test Validation and Development Specialist II in the California state service. (Applicants who have completed six months of the experience requirement as specified above, will be admitted to the examination but they must satisfactorily complete one year of the experience before they can be eligible for appointment.)

Or II

Experience: Three years of increasingly responsible experience in the development and evaluation of measures of human abilities or human performance and statistical analysis of data. (A master's degree in a behavioral science or statistics may be substituted for one year of the experience requirement; a doctoral degree in a behavioral science or statistics may be substituted for two years of the experience requirement.) (Experience in California state service applied toward this requirement must include at least one year of experience in a class comparable in level of responsibility to that of a Test Validation and Development Specialist II.)

Education: Equivalent to graduation from college, including or supplemented by courses in statistics and either test and measurements or research methods. (Additional qualifying experience may be substituted for the required education on a year-for-year basis.)

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

QUALIFICATIONS APPRAISAL PANEL (QAP) INTERVIEW – Weighted 100%

This examination will consist of a Qualifications Appraisal Panel (QAP) and is the sole component of the Personnel Selection Consultant I examination. To obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum score of 70% must be received.

If conditions warrant, this examination may utilize an evaluation of each candidate’s experience and education compared to a standard developed from the class specification. For this reason, it is especially important that each candidate take special care in accurately and completely filling out their application. List all experience relevant to the “Requirements for Admittance to the Examination” shown on this announcement, regardless of how long it has been since you attained the experience. Supplementary information will be accepted but read the “Requirements for Admittance to the Examination” carefully to see what kind of information will be useful to the staff doing the evaluation.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Department of Consumer Affairs reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service, if the circumstances under which this examination was planned, change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Department of Consumer Affairs, Selection Services and Recruitment Unit, at (916) 574-8370 three weeks after the final file date if he/she has not received a progress notice.

Examination Locations: Test locations are determined by the number of candidates and are limited or extended as conditions warrant.

Applications are available at www.jobs.ca.gov, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the Department of Consumer Affairs.

If you meet the requirements stated on this bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination will be rated and scored according to pre-determined rating criteria. All candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history, and fingerprinting may be required.

Employment Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) service-wide promotional, 5) departmental open, and 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin.

Veterans' Preference: Effective January 1, 2014, in accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, Veterans' Preference will be awarded as follows: 1) Any veteran, widow or widower of a veteran, or spouse of a 100 percent disabled veteran, who achieves a passing score in an entrance examination, shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligibility list. Any veteran who has been dishonorably discharged or released is not eligible for Veterans' Preference. 2) An entrance examination is defined, under the law, as any open competitive examination. And 3) Veterans' Preference is not granted once a person achieves permanent civil service status.

Veteran status is verified by the California Department of Human Resources (CalHR). Directions to apply for Veterans' Preference are on the Veterans' Preference Application (Std. Form 1093), which is available at http://jobs.ca.gov/Job/VeteransInformation, and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways; 1) passing the General Education Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the competitor is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.

Career Credits: In Open, Non-Promotional examinations, Career Credits are granted to: 1) State employees with permanent civil service status, 2) full-time employees of the State who are exempt from State civil service pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution, and who meet all qualification requirements specified by the Board and have 12 consecutive months of service in an exempt position, and 3) individuals who have served one full year in, or are graduates of, the California Conservation Corps (eligibility shall expire 24 months after graduation from the California Conservation Corps). Three points are added to the final test score of those candidates who meet the above criteria, and who are successful, in the examination.
