Meetings are open to the public except when specifically noticed otherwise in accordance with the Open Meeting Act. All times when stated are approximate and subject to change without prior notice at the discretion of the Bureau unless listed as "time certain." Items may be taken out of order to maintain a quorum, accommodate a speaker, or for convenience. Action may be taken on any item listed on this agenda, including information-only items. The meeting may be canceled without notice.

Members of the public can address the Bureau during the public comment session. Public comments will also be taken on agenda items at the time the item is heard and prior to the Bureau taking any action on said items. Total time allocated for public comment may be limited at the discretion of the Bureau Chief.

Instructions on how to observe and participate in the meeting using the WebEx platform can be found on the Cemetery and Funeral Bureau's website www.cfb.ca.gov.

Members of the public may, but are not obligated to, provide their names or personal information as a condition of observing or participating in the meeting. When signing into the WebEx platform, participants may be asked for their name and email address. Participants who choose not to provide their names will be required to provide a unique identifier, such as their initials or another alternative, so that the meeting moderator can identify individuals who wish to make public comment. Participants who choose not to provide their email address may utilize a fictitious email address in the following sample format: XXXXX@mailinator.com.
