MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

As the director of the Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA), I am proud to share DCA’s 2022–2027 Strategic Plan.

DCA is uniquely comprised of various entities that license and regulate millions of professionals in more than 280 license types. This plan outlines DCA’s organizational objectives and path forward for upcoming years. With our mission, vision, and values as touchstones, we pledge to protect the 40 million Californians who depend on the Department for their health, safety, and services.

The Department holds itself to a high standard in providing outstanding support services, oversight, and innovative solutions to those who regulate California professionals and vocations so that—through this partnership—all Californians are informed, empowered, and protected.

Our state’s values are a source of pride: They are the gift of our past and the foundation of our future as we create and celebrate a California for All. These values are evident in DCA’s strong commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion, as well as in our shared dedication to each and every consumer.

For nearly 150 years, California—the Golden State—has served as the nation’s gold standard for consumer protection. With this latest Strategic Plan, DCA will build upon California’s legacy of leadership and service by focusing on goals in six key areas:

1. Policy and Advocacy
2. Communications
3. Organizational Effectiveness and Services
4. Technology
5. Enforcement
6. Licensing

Like consumer protection itself, this Strategic Plan is a true team effort, drawing on the diversity, expertise, and dedication of our staff. This guiding document is the direct result of feedback, insights, and inspiration from employees at all levels. It belongs to all those who participated, to those we support, and to our entire workforce. On behalf of DCA, I thank all who played a role in this vital process.

I invite all DCA employees to join me in implementing this Strategic Plan. Together, we protect California consumers.

ABOUT US

DCA is a unique and dynamic department made up of 36 different boards, bureaus, a committee, a commission, and a program (referred to as boards and bureaus hereafter) that license and regulate more than 3.4 million licensees in more than 280 license types including certificates, registrations, and permits. Together, DCA protects and serves consumers in many ways:

• DCA is a service provider—Through several administrative divisions and offices, including Communications, Legislative Affairs, Legal Affairs, Human Resources, Business Services, Fiscal Office, and Information Technology, DCA provides oversight and support services for these boards and bureaus to assist them in their mission of consumer protection.

• DCA is an educator—DCA and its licensing boards and bureaus educate consumers by giving them information they need to avoid being victimized by unscrupulous, unlicensed, or unqualified people who promote deceptive or unsafe services.

• DCA is a licensing entity—Through its licensing boards and bureaus, DCA licenses more than 3.4 million professionals and enables consumers to check the license status of these professionals online or by phone.

• DCA is a regulator—Through its licensing boards and bureaus and its Division of Investigation, DCA investigates consumer complaints on issues under its jurisdiction. If violations are found, license holders can face discipline that may include probation, suspension or revocation of a license, fines and citations, letters of reprimand, cease and desist orders, or criminal charges.

DCA is committed to supporting the core mission of consumer protection, which is shared by all its boards and bureaus. The individuals who serve at DCA inform and empower consumers, promote consumer interests before lawmakers, enforce consumer protection laws, collaborate with law enforcement to fight consumer fraud, promote use of fair and valid licensing examination programs, and work to ensure that consumers are protected in California.

STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

To understand the environment in which DCA operates and to identify factors that could impact the Department’s success, the DCA SOLID Planning Unit (SOLID) conducted an environmental scan of the internal and external environments by collecting information from different stakeholder groups. Interviews were conducted with members of the DCA executive team and DCA centralized services deputy and division chiefs. Additionally, an online survey was sent out to board and bureau leadership, board and committee members, and external stakeholders. A total of 230 people participated in providing feedback for the environmental scan.

The most significant themes and trends identified from the environmental scan were discussed by the Department’s executive team during strategic planning sessions facilitated by SOLID. This information guided the executive team in the review of its mission, vision, and values while directing the strategic goals and objectives outlined in its new strategic plan.
Strategic Plan Adopted on June 1, 2022

This strategic plan is based on stakeholder information and discussions facilitated by SOLID for the Department of Consumer Affairs. Subsequent amendments may have been made after the adoption of this plan.
